INAM 0100. Skills for Success. 1 Hour.
Offers students an opportunity to gain and practice skills for better study strategies, test taking, stress management, and general academic practices as a student in the College of Arts, Media and Design. Offers students an opportunity to discuss techniques for managing their work, preparing for exams, and reflecting on their own learning styles. Participation is a key element in addition to practicing new skills covered in the course.

INAM 1000. Arts, Media and Design at Northeastern. 1 Hour.
Intended for freshmen in the College of Arts, Media and Design. Offers students an opportunity to become familiar with the liberal arts in general and with their major; to develop the academic skills necessary to succeed (analytical ability and critical thinking); to become grounded in the culture and values of the university community; and to develop interpersonal skills—in short, to familiarize themselves with all skills needed to become a successful university student. Requires advisor approval for students outside of the College of Arts, Media and Design.

INAM 1990. Elective. 1-4 Hours.
Offers elective credit for courses taken at other academic institutions. May be repeated without limit.

INAM 2015. Creativity Lab. 4 Hours.
Offers students an opportunity to learn an iterative and collaborative studio practice of making, critiquing, and presenting finished original work based upon their individual and collective ideas and intentions. Students meet as a group and also attend individual and small group sessions with mentors in their field as they exercise their talents in art, architecture, communication, media, design, music, journalism, and/or theatre. Restricted to students who are completing their first year at Northeastern and whose Creativity Lab application has been accepted. Students should contact their academic advisor for application information.
