JRN 0334. Public Relations Basics and Practice. 2 Hours.
Offers students an opportunity to learn the concepts, components, and methods of public relations, including planning and research, processes of influencing public opinion, and policies concerning corporate and institutional relations with the media and various publics. Studies specific practices and techniques employed in public relations, especially the handling of information and organization of activities and events.