Undergraduate Students Seeking More Than One Undergraduate Certificate and/or Degree

An undergraduate student can be enrolled in only one undergraduate program at a time.

Undergraduate students seeking more than one certificate or degree after having completed a program should note that undergraduate credits earned toward:

- A certificate earned at the College of Professional Studies may be used to satisfy the requirements of an associate or bachelor’s degree, if the contents are determined to be applicable per the program director.
- A certificate earned at the College of Professional Studies may be used to satisfy the requirements of a second certificate with a cap of 6 credits, if the contents are determined to be applicable per the program director.
- A bachelor’s degree earned at the College of Professional Studies may be used to satisfy the requirements of a second bachelor’s degree with a cap of 50 percent of the requirements for the second degree, if the contents are determined to be applicable per the program director.
