The Office of Global Services (OGS) offers a vast array of programs and services to more than 13,000 international students and scholars who represent approximately 147 nations.

The OGS also works to promote meaningful interaction and intercultural understanding among citizens of other countries and their peers from the United States, providing educational and cultural enrichment opportunities for all members of Northeastern and the community at large.

The OGS oversees the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) at Northeastern, as mandated by the U.S. federal government, in order to ensure compliance with regulations and procedures affecting those international students and scholars in specified nonimmigrant visa classifications.

Affiliation with the OGS begins with the orientation program and continues through such initiatives as its cultural festival, International Carnevale, which celebrates the cultural diversity of the entire university community. For a list of OGS services and programs, visit the OGS website (https://www.northeastern.edu/ogs).

International students in F-1 and J-1 visa classification must maintain full-time status at Northeastern to be in compliance with immigration and SEVIS regulations. Also, students must not engage in any type of employment unless previously authorized by the OGS. Note that timely registration for courses is especially important so that students may remain in compliance with current federal regulations. International students should consult with the OGS if they have any questions about their individual status.

Coming to Campus
Preparing to travel to the United States and begin studies at Northeastern University is exciting. Careful planning will help to ensure smooth travel and arrival to campus. Here are some of the key reminders:

• Apply for an F-1 or J-1 visa at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate. If an interview is required, the appointment should be requested early. More information on the application process is available online (http://www.northeastern.edu/issi/visaprocess.html).

• Transfer students currently studying in the United States in F-1 or J-1 visa classification should obtain an I-20 or DS-2019 from Northeastern.

• Understand the medical insurance requirements (http://www.northeastern.edu/issi/insurance.html) and purchase health insurance coverage if not already covered by a policy that meets Massachusetts state requirements.

Make sure you received the Northeastern Health Report form in your admissions packet. Have your doctor sign the form and make sure you have received all of the immunizations listed on the form. If you have any questions, contact the University Health and Counseling Services in person at 135 Forsyth Building, by calling 617.373.2772 option #2, or by email (UHCS@northeastern.edu).

Planning Information
As a new international student, you are expected to arrive by the start date of your program stated on the I-20 issued by Northeastern or on the DS-2019 issued by Northeastern or by your sponsoring agency/government.

When you plan your travel arrangements, you should seek admission to the United States no more than 30 days prior to the report date on your I-20 or DS-2019, and you should not arrive after the report date on your I-20 or DS-2019.

All international students will need to report to the OGS at their scheduled immigration clearance session during orientation. Check the orientation schedule (https://www.northeastern.edu/ogs/home/new-students/orientation/#1501875537352-ce3d3c3e-69d2) for the date and time of your session.

Housing
Students at Northeastern University College of Professional Studies are not eligible for on-campus housing at Northeastern University. There are, however, a number of housing resources (http://www.cps.neu.edu/student-resources/housing.php) you may refer to if you are seeking housing in the Boston area.

SEVIS Compliance
The OGS is required to comply with immigration regulations governing your student status and must submit information every term as required by the Department of Homeland Security.

The OGS: Your Resource for SEVIS Advice and Assistance
The OGS advises F-1 and J-1 students on the complexities of immigration compliance and interfaces with various U.S. government agencies. The OGS maintains and updates the SEVIS system and advises students on relevant issues related to nonimmigrant student status by individual appointments or through workshops and information sessions. Consult the OGS whenever you have a question relating to your nonimmigrant student status or any aspect of SEVIS compliance.
