

International Relations, Minor

Combining required courses that introduce international relations and comparative politics with electives offers students in the international relations minor an opportunity to develop a global awareness of the interconnectedness of cultures and an understanding of the government structures and processes that impact the international arena.

Minor Requirements

Complete all courses listed below unless otherwise indicated.

Required Courses

Code	Title	Hours
POL 1120	International Relations	3
POL 1200	Comparative Politics	3

Electives

Code	Title	Hours
Complete 9 semester hours from the following:		9
POL 3126	Global Governance
POL 3135	International Conflict and Negotiation
POL 3140	International Security
POL 3210	Nationalism
POL 3220	Democracy in Comparative Politics

Program Requirement

15 total semester hours required