The geology minor focuses on the history and development of the earth. The program places a strong emphasis on field studies as a means of appreciating the materials, landforms, and forces interacting throughout geological time.

Minor Requirements
Complete all courses listed below unless otherwise indicated. Also complete any corequisite labs, recitations, clinicals, or tools courses where specified.

Required Courses
- ENVR 1200 and ENVR 1201 Dynamic Earth and Lab for ENVR 1200, 5 credit hours
- ENVR 1202 and ENVR 1203 History of Earth and Life and Interpreting Earth History, 5 credit hours
- ENVR 2310 and ENVR 2311 Earth Materials and Lab for ENVR 2310, 5 credit hours
- ENVR 3000 and ENVR 3001 Igneous Petrology and Volcanology and Lab for ENVR 3000, 5 credit hours

Geology Elective
Complete one ENVR course, 4 credit hours

GPA Requirement
2.000 GPA required in the minor