

Global Studies (GBST)

Courses

GBST 1012. The Global Learning Experience. (1 Hour)

Examines global citizenship in the 21st century. Introduces the concepts of global citizenship, cosmopolitanism, pluralism, and culture. Connects local issues at host sites with broader dynamics of globalization, migration, positionality, power, and privilege. #Offers opportunities to analyze and apply ideas through personal reflection, application of intercultural theory, and team-based problem solving.

GBST 5100. Global Network Program. (20 Hours)

Offers an opportunity to study at a global network location. May be repeated up to five times.