

PhD Internship

Khoury College defines a PhD Internship as an experiential learning experience that is directly related to a student's PhD studies. PhD Internships may be full-time (32-40 hours per week) or part-time (31 or fewer hours per week); paid or unpaid. See Course Credit Guidelines (<https://catalog.northeastern.edu/graduate/academic-policies-procedures/course-credit-guidelines/>) for more information.

PhD Internship Eligibility

- Be in good academic standing
- Have completed a minimum of two semesters of full-time registration in their PhD program
- Have received approval from both their faculty advisor(s) and PhD Student Services prior to accepting any positions or opportunities
- Internships cannot be in a student's final semester/the semester that the student plans to defend and graduate
