Financial Risk Management, Graduate Certificate (Online)

The Graduate Certificate in Financial Risk Management focuses on identifying and managing financial risks, making it ideal for roles in risk analysis and financial regulation. Students have an opportunity to study topics in risk management derivatives and alternative investments, asset and liability management, and accounting fundamentals in financial institutions.

Program Requirements

Complete all courses and requirements listed below unless otherwise indicated.

Required Courses

Code	Title	Hours
CED 6250	Risk Management: Derivatives and Alternative Investments	3
CED 6260	Credit Risk Management	3
FIN 6101	Accounting Fundamentals for Financial Institutions	3
FIN 6102	Asset and Liability Management	3

Program Credit/GPA Requirements

12 total semester hours required
Minimum 3.000 GPA required