

Law and Public Policy, Minor

Overview

The law and public policy (LPP) minor offers students an opportunity to obtain a deep understanding of the U.S. legal system and apply that knowledge to current law and policy debates. In the LPP minor core courses, students have the opportunity to watch a criminal and/or civil trial, debate their classmates, and listen to speakers from both the public and private sector (state and federal judges, public defenders, and government lawyers). While the minor is well suited for students interested in pursuing a career in law and/or policy, it is invaluable for students in any field of practice, as law affects all professions and society at large.
